GENERAL ITEMS.

—The Dr. Blaisdell who was arrested the other day for procuring affidavits against Collector Bailey, with a view to his removal from office, was brought before United States Commissioner Osborne, in New York, on Thursday, and gave bail in the sum of $10,000 for his appearance to answer.

—At a meeting of the Republican General Committee, held in New York on Thursday night, a motion to recommend the appointment of Horace Greeley by the Governor to be City Register, that the fees might be paid to Gen. Halpine's widow, was greeted with such a storm of hisses that the mover was compelled to withdraw it.

—Mr. Seth Boyden, of Newark, says that with twenty years' cultivation he can raise strawberries as large as pineapples, which will retain all the delicacy of the fruit now grown. This is considerable of an undertaking, and we hope Mr. Boyden may live for twenty years; but we very much doubt his success.

—A letter from Panama states that the passengers who left New York on the steamer Ocean Queen the 16th of July, were detained at Aspinwall near three days, in consequence of a portion of the Panama Railroad track and a culvert having been carried away during a storm at Obispo Station.

—On Monday two workmen on the Catholic Church in Fall River, Mass., who had gone up to the tower, now one hundred feet high, for the purpose of viewing the scenery, stepped upon the waiter on which they had ascended, without notifying the engineer. The waiter descended very rapidly, and both the men, who are stone-cutters and live in Lawrence, were seriously hurt.

—By the Cuba cable we have telegraphic news from Mexico City to the 31st of July. Honorato Dominguez had pronounced against the Government in the State of Vera Cruz, and had seized some villages along the railroad. He was levying a heavy tariff on his own account on the freight that came into his hands. Hostilities were going on in the State of Puebla; but in Queretaro the insurgents had been compelled to submit. Ortega and Patoni had been released by Juarez. The blockade at Mazatlan had been raised. The vomito was severe at Vera Cruz.

—The trial of the Reno brothers, who are now confined in the New Albany (Ind.) jail, comes off at Lexington on the 7th of September. There are five cases pending in that Court against each of the prisoners, and the proof is thought to be so positive against them that they will be convicted. Some of the State's witnesses, it is claimed, can identify one as the man who fired at Mr. Hawkins, the express messenger, who was overpowered and thrown out of the car while at full speed, near Marshfield.

—Col. Thos. J. Johnston, late President of Macon College at Danville, Va., was killed at Mattoon, Ill., on Saturday last. He was in the sleeping car which is backed on a running switch and left at that place. Ascertaining that the train had started, he run to the front end of the car and jumped out, probably forgetting in the excitement of the moment that the car he was on was still in motion. As he jumped out he fell, and the car passed over him. He, it is said, was a brother of Gen. Joseph E Johnston.

—Mr. Leo. Matherly was killed recently, in Sunflower county, Miss., by Harrison Nelson, who formerly lived at Vicksburg.

—A lot of Yankees recently visited Canada and a number of farmers living near Hamilton and Guelph have been victimized by them. The "operators," duly provided with surveyor's chain and compass, present themselves in the fields near a house, claiming to be surveying the line for a new railroad; the "line" is made to run either directly through the house or across the doorway; the farmer protested and begged, the surveyors sympathized, and, finally, rather than put him to so much inconvenience, consented to go back a mile and change the direction sufficiently to take the road away from the house if the owner would pay the thirty or forty dollars for the extra trouble. The proposal was, of course, gladly accepted and the money paid and pocketed, and the surveyors started their line again through another man's premises, where the same farce was re-enacted. The ingenious humbug has been exposed at length, but the victims have not recovered their money.

—The Vicksburg Herald says: We are informed that on last Saturday night, as two gentlemen were sleeping on the gallery in Madison parish, La., about eight miles from this city, a huge panther sprung in upon them, seized one by the shoulder, biting out an immense piece, and striking him viciously about the face and chest with his huge paws, tearing away great masses of flesh with each stroke. When the stage passed it was thought the wounded gentleman would die.

—The Columbus (Ga.) Sun has received the following sensible card, the writer being prompted by the return of civil government:

"A CARD.—The undersigned having been appointed Justice of the Peace by the military authorities, and their powers having ceased, I will no longer exercise the powers of that office.

"Aug. 5, 1868. MICHAEL MCCAHEY."

ALABAMA.

—A colored Democratic Club has been organized in Selma.

—The publication of the Watchman has been transferred from Elyton to Jasper.

—The publication of the Choctaw Herald, the paper of the late N. F. Thomas, has been suspended.

—The Wilcox Vindicator thinks there never was a worse prospect for cotton at this time of year.

—Elijah Caldwell, alias Lambert, a horse-thief who broke jail at Lafayette last year, has been arrested at Opelika.

—Owing to the excessive rains, the Eutaw Whig predicts not more than one-third of an average cotton crop, even with a favorable fall.

—From the Mobile Tribune of Wednesday, we glean the following items:

Gen Cullen A. Battle arrived in the city this morning. He will be the guest of Hon. John Forsyth during his stay in the city.

A beautiful meteor was observed to shoot across the sky last night about 9½ o'clock. It came from a Northerly direction, and its course was due South. The train left in its passage was plainly visible fifteen or twenty seconds.

We noticed yesterday on the street that a number of draymen, white and black, had small flags with the names of Seymour and Blair printed across them. Badges have become quite common, and it is generally understood now that every one must "hang his sign out," to let the public know where he stands.

We observed a large U. S. wagon yesterday afternoon, drawn by two staunch horses, going up Royal street, in which were seated several soldiers. Behind the ears of the horses were fixed Seymour and Blair flags. So we go. Blair's word as a soldier suits these "gallant boys in blue" better than Grant's, the butcher of their comrades. There is no comparison as to statesmanship between Seymour and Colfax. The latter is "no-whar."

BY TELEGRAPH.

Noon Dispatches.

NASHVILLE, August 13.—Defeated Blewis & Co. on every point yesterday. He got but nineteen votes for elector. Did not wait for short session this morning. -Special to the Public Ledger.

NEW YORK, August 13.—Reports of the crops by telegraph from all parts of the country are, on the whole, quite cheering. The wheat crops are larger than they were last year. In West Virginia and Ohio, Missouri, Kansas, Utah, Colorado, Montana, Illinois, Iowa, Wisconsin, Minnesota, New York, Pennsylvania, New Jersey, Maine, Massachusetts and New Hampshire, the quality is regarded as excellent. In Virginia, South Carolina, Alabama and Texas, the reports are not as good—the yield being indifferent. In Louisiana, Arkansas, Kentucky, Mississippi, Maryland, Southwestern Virginia, Central Tennessee, North Carolina, Delaware and Vermont, the crops have been an average one. The corn crop is very large, and the quality is remarkably good. The yield this year will be fully one-third more than last. This is especially so in the Southern States. In oats, in Kentucky, Tennessee, West Virginia, Indiana, Missouri, Kansas, Ohio, Nebraska, Iowa, Wisconsin, Minnesota, Vermont, New York and Illinois the yield is large, while in the States of Mississippi, Georgia, Florida, South Carolina and other Southern States it will be more than an average. Rains lately have injured crops in New Jersey, Ohio, Delaware, Maryland and Maine. The barley crop will be an average. In hay more than an average will be realized in Pennsylvania; New York, Indiana, Ohio, New Jersey, Delaware and Maryland the yield is very large and excellent. Fully an average yield of cotton is expected. Sugar promises well, but very little planted. Fruit almost a total failure, especially in the Middle States; the peach crop will not be half what it was last year. In the extreme South it looks better. In New York apples look better. The potato crop generally large and good. Heavy mildew and lice have killed the hops in Pennsylvania.

WASHINGTON, August 13.—A meeting of the citizens of Lancaster, Pa., was held in the Representative Hall last evening, and resolutions deploring the death of Thaddeus Stevens were adopted.

TENNESSEE.

The Radical Enterprise at McMinnville has another scalawag added to its editorial corps. His name is Charpie, and is from Indiana. "Harpie" would be a more appropriate name, as being generic of the race scalawag.

—Of five hundred and forty-eight emigrants who passed through Columbus last week, thirty-eight were destined for this State.

—Sumner county don't want the "mellish." The sheriff who is a Radical, and was elected by bigger votes, says "he relies on the people to execute the law."

—The corn crop in Warren will yield an abundance, more than for several years. Wheat has proved an extra yield, while oats did well considering the drought of May and June.

—The Knoxville Press and Herald is down on the editor of the "Mountain Boomer" because he refuses to recognize our "glorious country" in the P. O. Dept., and persists in using "confederick stamps" on his letters. The Knoxville chap wants the militia called out to suppress the Boomer.

—The Press and Herald says of the Knoxville and Charleston road: The officers of this road hope to have the track laid into the town of Maryville by tomorrow. The gentlemen in charge of this public work deserve great praise for the energy they have displayed in its management.

—The same paper informs us that there will be a daily mail to Montvale Springs from Knoxville hereafter—Messrs. Carr & Rice, owners of the stage line, having generously offered to take charge of all letters and papers mailed to parties at the Springs.

—The Hartsville Vidette says of the "Hartsville Masonic Institute": The friends of education will be gratified to learn that the well known institution located in Hartsville has been transferred to the Lodge at this place, and the Masonic Brotherhood throughout the State becomes its guardian, its protector and its friend. This announcement of itself is pleasant, and reflects credit upon all concerned; but it receives additional interest from the fact that the stockholders and owners of the magnificent buildings and grounds gave them to the Masonic Fraternity as a free will offering—without money and without price. Such generosity, we venture to say, cannot be found in any other place than Hartsville and its vicinity.

MISSISSIPPI.

—The Columbus Index has changed hands. We learn from a friend, lately from Columbus, that Col. Baker has become editor and proprietor. We never receive this excellent paper—Why is it?

—The Clarion has been compelled to suspend its daily publication. It will appear tri weekly hereafter.

—Col. Biddle, commander of the post at Jackson, has handsomely apologized to Gen. Freeman, chairman of the Democratic Executive Committee, for the interruption of the Seymour and Blair procession by a drunken lieutenant.

A Renegade Rabbi.

NASHVILLE, August 11, 1868.

To the Editor of the Banner:

The Press and Times of last Monday, says that that fellow, Liebman Adler, who is a Jew, showed a good deal of shrewdness by writing to the Illinois Staats Zeitung, that he does not hold Grant as an enemy to the Jews. I cannot see that Adler is a man of much shrewdness, because if he had been a smart Jew he would never have been kicked out of the congregation in which he was employed as a Rabbi. Such men as Lieoman Adler may, for all we care, vote as they please, for the Jews at large are determined to let them slide as being a disgrace to the Jewish nation and to mankind.

DE MORTUIS NIL NISI VERUM.

Thaddeus Stevens is dead, and Jacobinism puts on mourning, pronounces eulogies, and chaunts psalms to his memory. We have no words of charity for him, because he is dead. His name is none the less detestable, because he has gone to join those whom he emulated, while hate and malice kept alive the candle of his life, its blaze flickering low in its socket.

Tacitus did not drop the resentments of history or suppress the verdicts of truth and justice, at the graves of Tiberius and Nero. History has not covered the crimes of Robespierre, Marat, Barrere and Carrier with the mantle of a generous oblivion. Let the graver cut deeply into the enduring steel, and the acid of a righteous indignation, eating into it, make more indelible the record of his infamy.

If History did not hold up to eternal execration the memories of the miscreants with whom God afflicts humanity, of the Alvas, the Borgias, the Caracallas, the Sumners and the Stevenses, there would be little inducement for men to imitate the Gods and shun the service of the Devil.

The world rejoices when a tyrant dies.

THE FRUITS OF MISGOVERNMENT IN TENNESSEE.

"The instability, injustice and confusion introduced into the public councils, have, in truth, been the mortal diseases under which popular governments have everywhere perished."—Madison; in the Federalist.

The following article from the New York Herald, is a pregnant commentary upon this text:

TENNESSEE FINANCES.

The rapid decline in Tennessee bonds from about seventy-seven a few weeks ago to nearly sixty last week has caused more than usual attention to be directed to the financial and general condition of the State. Its failure to pay the semi-annual interest due on the 1st of July was the immediate cause of the break, and since then the developments in the Legislature and elsewhere have still further impaired its credit. In the Senate a bill was offered and referred providing for the funding of the matured principal and interest of the debt and all that may mature during the next three years into six per cent. bonds, to run thirty years, the principal and interest payable in Nashville. This, of course, if acted upon, would be declaratory that the State will suspend all payments on account of its debt for three years to come. Subsequently a bill was introduced in the House providing for the funding of the interest and matuning principal of the debt for five years, thus suspending interest payments for two years longer than the Senate bill proposed; and this was referred to a committee. Gov. Brownlow, in his message, gives an alarming description of the social and political condition of the State, and recommends the calling out of the militia and the summary infliction of the death penalty upon all members of the Ku-klux Klan. "True," he says, "it will take money to furnish a military force, but loyal men are entitled to protection without any regard to what it may cost in dollars and cents." From all this it will be seen that the bondholders have a discouraging prospect before them, and it is not at all surprising that Tennessee bonds have declined; neither would it be if they were to sink still lower, for Tennessee financial affairs present just now an aspect calculated to arouse grave distrust.

The situation of matters at Nashville reflects discredit upon the financial officers of the State, and also to some extent upon the Legislature. At the close of the war the total State debt, including arrears of interest, was about nineteen millions of dollars, about fifteen millions of which were secured by liens on main lines of railway penetrating all the important points of the State; but under the legislation since this time the amount has been increased to about thirty five millions. We look in vain for any fair equivalent for this large increase of indebtedness. There have been no main lines of railway built and not more than a hundred miles of new road have been constructed since the close of the war all over the State. The common school fund has been misapplied and squandered, and the remnant of the banking capital of the state Bank has been also entirely absorbed to pay the ordinary expenses of the local government. Antecedent to the rebellion, under the various acts of the Legislature, known as the Internal Improvement law, appropriations were made in aid of all the railways in the State of iron ten to fifteen thousand dollars per mile, secured to the State by liens; but since the war the legislation in aid of railways has been of a very loose character, money having been granted to a reckless extent to a number of short and unprofitable lines. As a case in point we may mention that $8,815,220 have been given in aid of the construction and reconstruction of five roads whose aggregate length is only one hundred and thirty five miles—namely, from fourteen to thirty-six miles each. Then, again, bonds have been given to roads already under mortgage for about their real value, and by the sale of the former these small companies, earning little more than their running expenses, were enabled to pay their interest. Bonds have also been sold by the State to pay interest and militia expenditures, which last have been heavy. This mismanagement of the finances has materially impaired the credit of the State and created wide-spread dissatisfaction among the bondholders, and the rebel element, chafing under disfranchisement, boldly threaten repudiation of a debt which they allege has been forced upon them without representation. So stand the financial affairs of Tennessee, while its social condition is nearly as bad as its finances. The Governor does not feel secure in the fall election without the protection of the militia and, therefore, calls upon the Legislature to supply the sinews of war, while the conservative element is at fever heat, declaring that if there is any attempt to coerce by force it will be met by force in return.

We would much rather appeal to the reason, than to the passions and prejudices of those who do us the honor to read what we write; and if we could speak to those who insist upon the continuance of our disfranchisement and of misgovernment in Tennessee, we should prefer to appeal to their reason, and to their instincts of self-interest, rather, even, than to the reason or interests or passions of those whose opinions are the same as ours.

Nor can we believe that a serious and sober appeal to their reason would be unheeded by those among them who have the public interest at heart, even if they distrusted those by whose lips the appeal was uttered.

If what we write could reach them, we should implore them to consider whether either the prosperity or respectability of the State can be subserved by continuing the impolicy that has plunged it into bankruptcy, or at least brought it to its verge; and by still entrusting the fortunes of the State to the care and custody of the political virago who surely does no honor to the office of Governor of Tennessee, and is no fit successor of the great men who were the glory and pride of the State, and who, departing, left behind them, in her sky, long, luminous trains of splendor that have not yet faded away. Is William G. Brownlow, the common drab and scold, whom any conscientious Magistrate would condemn to the punishment of the cucking stool,—is William G. Brownlow, of whom as a Whig Editor the Whig Party was always ashamed, a fit and worthy successor of Jackson, White, Grundy, Polk and Brown? Would not every Union man in the State, if he could lay aside the passions and rancors engendered by the war, be ashamed of one who is the abject slave of his passions, and who utters in language classical in hell, sentiments worthy of the foul and indecent words in which they are expressed?

Tell us, you who are the rank and file of the Union party of Tennessee, for the benefit of how many men are hostilities continued, and eighty thousand of your fellow-citizens disfranchised? Here in Memphis, you may count them on your fingers. You may do the same at Nashville. These are the only men who have any thing to lose by enfranchisement of the disfranchised white men of the State. How many of these do you respect? For how many of them do you care? You would be proud to work to serve a great man. Are you proud to work for the purpose of keeping Stokes and Mullins among the great men of the Union? How many men here in Memphis profit by your labors and sacrifices, and make gain by our disfranchisement? and what manner of men are they? Are you proud of them? Do you feel yourselves honored and glorified by being their Pretorian Guards and Janissaries? Are they the kind of men whom a freeman is born to elevate? Is that the only mission and service to humanity, for which God created you? What do they say of one another? In what colors do they paint each other? If the devils whom Milton represents as assembling at the call of Satan had fallen out and discussed each other's characters, what could they have said of each other, worse than the Radicals and Radical Journals of Memphis say of those who were once held together in a common piracy, "by the cohesive attraction of public plunder?"

What do we want, but just government and equal laws, and honest and respectable men to administer the government? If you are willing that the blacks should vote, you are not willing that they should rule. If you enfranchise us, we can change nothing without your consent. We can elect nobody without your help. You seem to to be insanely afraid that the "rebels" will obtain the control of the State Government, if they are enfranchised. How could they do it, unless by the aid of your votes?

Do you think that if we were to become possessed of the powers of government, we should ostracise and persecute you? You need not fear that. Those who faced the storms of Federal bullets, and even those the bones of whose children, slain in battle, bleach unburied, are only too ready to forget even treachery to the Confederate cause, and to give office and do honor to the time-server and the speculator whom the misfortunes of his country made rich and therefore respectable. If we are placable enough to forgive and even honor them, should we retain malice against those who have been only hostile to us and not treacherous? What Confederate soldier refuses to take a Federal soldier by the hand? What friendships are so warm and true as those between brave men who have fought each other manfully on many a field of glory?

Union men of Tennessee, proud of your race and blood! you are helping a few mean men to ruin the State, to bankrupt it, to load you and your children with an intolerable debt. You are helping them to carry forward measures that are sure to re-light the flames of civil war. FOR WHOSE BENEFIT? WHO IS TO REAP PROFIT FROM IT? For what sort of creatures are you ruining the State? Why will you not take us by the hand, when we hold our hands out to you, and offer to renew the bonds of the ancient brotherhood? We, the rank and file of the Conservative-Democratic party, are not working for the benefit of political adventurers, sharpers, and bats that flit about in the dim twilight between principle and expediency. As God is our judge, we seek only the permanent interest of the State and the country, the restoration of the old landmarks, the return of the old good humor and good fellowship. We care nothing for the offices and emoluments that the people have in their gift. How many of us, how many of you, want office? You are working, as we are, for a handful of men, and these, on each side, are working, maneuvering, wire-pulling, managing and chicaning for themselves, and for themselves alone. Read the list of the names of those who are, like the croupiers at Rouge et Noir, raking in the moneys on the political gambling table. How many among them do you respect? For how many would you shed a tear or heave a sigh, if they were dead? To how many of those who legislate for you and govern you, would you entrust your lawsuits, the conduct of your business, or the custody of your moneys? Do you think that the blasphemous Parson and political Harlequin who plays the role of Governor, gives you better Judges, by appointment, than you or we would elect? Are you satisfied with the bankruptcy of the State, with the loss of the school fund, with the new burthen which the establishment of a standing army of vagabonds, blackguards and worthless negroes is about to impose on you?

Do you not know that we are weary of strife, sick of the sight of blood standing in pools on the ground and reddening the rivers, of ghastly wounds and mutilations, of severed limbs, and the bones of dead heroes bleaching in the sunlight that shines sadly on the battle-fields of Tennessee? Do you not know that we are sadder and sicker still, to see in office and reaping rich harvests of profit of exactions and tribute from us and you, the men who were false to us, and would have been false to you, if the cause we fought for had succeeded; the pimps and catamites of power, the whelps of the hyena, too cowardly to fight, and who receive insults with equanimity, and meekly bear the burthen of the whole world's contumely?

Why, for whose profit, for what benefit to yourselves or your children, do you want disturbances, anarchy, bloodshed? What do you expect to achieve in the end, with the aid of negro votes? What have you to gain, what have you not to lose, by the continuance of discontent and hate and the insatiable longing for revenge of the oppressed; by the rule of ignorance which impoverishes the State by improvident legislation, and elevates to office men whom you cannot respect?

CITY MATTERS.

IUKA SPRINGS.—Our readers must not forget the grand blowout that mine hosts of the hotel at Iuka, Miss., Messrs. Steffey & Barchus, are fixing up for the 21st. In fact, we do not intend to let them forget it.

CONTINUED auction bankrupt sale of standard drugs in packages, varnishes, essential oils, logwood, whiting, acids, grocers' sundries, etc., to-day at 10 o'clock, No. 195 Main street.
W. Y. CIRODE, Assignee.

THE REGULAR MEETING of the Ninth Ward Democratic Club will be held at their "Wigwam" this evening at eight o'clock. A full attendance is desired, as there will be business of importance to transact.
W. B. RICHARDET,
Recording Secretary.

WE take pleasure in calling attention to the card of Mr. J. L. Verser, cotton factor and commission merchant, 314 Front street. Mr. Verser has been in the business for several years, and has the reputation of doing what is right and just by all who do business with him.

NEW FIRM.—Some changes have occurred in the firm of Lacey & McGhee. A. T. Lacey, Esq., goes into the cotton factorage and commission business, exclusively, while Capt. R. L. McGhee will soon open a large stock of groceries and plantation supplies at 284 Front street.

BASE BALL.—A match game will be played between the Eclipse Base Ball Club of this city, and the Marion Club of Arkansas, at Hopefield to-day, on the Bluff City grounds. The game will be called at two o'clock precisely. The steamer Nevada will carry passengers the round trip for half fare.

MAYOR'S OFFICE, CITY HALL,
MEMPHIS, TENN., August 13, 1868.

Messrs. A. J. Hays and others, Committee, etc.:

Gentlemen: Your polite invitation to be present at your grand barbecue and mass meeting at Wythe, on the 15th inst., has been received and with much pleasure accepted. Yours, very respectfully, etc.,
JNO. W. LEFTWICH.

GREENWOOD DEMOCRATS, ATTENTION. Your regular meeting takes place this evening at eight o'clock. It is hoped that a large majority of the members will be present, as important resolutions will be submitted. Do not permit your enthusiasm to drag, but turn out, and let every man contribute his mite towards redeeming his country.

THE BUSY BEE.—The card of the Brownsville Bee will be found in another column. This sterling and live paper is published in one of the richest planting counties adjacent to Memphis. Our merchants would do well to cultivate the trade of that section, and to do so no means could be adopted which would be more efficient than to advertise in the Bee.

BURGLARY.—The rooms of Messrs. S. V. Caulk and Ralph Hicks, over Mart. Walt's grocery on Front street, were entered yesterday and robbed of several suits of new clothes, boots, etc. No clue has been found to the robber. Even "Sol," the right hand man of Mart. Walt, was left destitute by the raiders, and that elegant suit in which he appeared last Sunday, has gone from his gaze forever.

AGRICULTURAL.—The Shelby County Agricultural and Mechanical Society will meet at White's station, on the Memphis and Charleston Railroad, at 2 o'clock p.m., the 15th inst. All persons interested in the agricultural prosperity of this country are respectfully and earnestly invited to attend. The cars will leave Memphis at 12:40 p.m., and return at 6 o'clock the same day. The railroad company, with a public spirit truly commendable, have reduced the fare to half price.

THE COST OF A GLASS OF SODA WATER. A glass of soda requires half a pint of aerated water, and one ounce of syrup. "A pint is a pound the world round," and therefore a gallon of water sixteen. According to the prices previously given, the article costs the ordinary smaller retailer from two and a quarter to three and a half cents, leaving an average profit of seven cents, where it is sold, as usually, at ten. Large stores, who make it themselves, get it much cheaper, but store rent, labor, and cost of apparatus, is always to be taken into account. Nevertheless, we know of large firms whose store rent and running expenses are paid by their soda fountain alone.

STABBING AFFRAY.—Phil Cunningham, a negro, was arraigned before Squire Griffith yesterday afternoon, charged with committing an assault with a knife on another negro named Austin Thompson, with intent to commit murder. The testimony showed that Thompson was coming quietly out of his house on DeSoto street, on Wednesday night, as the Democratic procession passed, and Cunningham waylaid him, and after accusing him of tampering with his wife, stabbed him twice in the back with a pen-knife. The wounds which, though not serious, are severe, were dressed by Dr. Rodgers, and Thompson was able to be in court yesterday. The case was continued till this morning.

STILLMAN HALL last night was filled with a large and appreciative audience, assembled to listen to the charming literary and musical entertainment prepared for them by the Rev. Dr. Rogers. The many friends of the Doctor were much gratified, both at the number and character of the assembly. The reading of the poem, and the poem itself, were all that could be desired. At its conclusion, the Rev. Mr. Hines welcomed the Doctor home, and expressed a desire to hear the poem repeated at some future day. The address of welcome, and the wish to have the poem repeated was also echoed by Dr. Ford in a few happy remarks. Rarely have we spent a pleasanter half hour, and we beg leave to join our own solicitation to those already expressed to the Doctor, soon to repeat the entertainment.

A CURIOUS STORY.

Miscegenation, Superstition and Crime.

On Wednesday evening, about seven o'clock, a white woman, named Grady, shot a negro woman named Isabel Watson in the head with a pistol. We heard of the affair that evening, but as the negro woman was but slightly hurt, and we could get no particulars, we did not make any mention of it. Yesterday, however, in making some inquiries from a detective about other matters, we heard the whole story connected with the shooting, and it is one that illustrates forcibly the condition of ignorance, superstition and vice that exists in that class of society found by a mingling of the white and black races, that we give it as we heard it—albeit is one that we dislike to introduce into the columns of the APPEAL.

Mrs. Grady is a white woman, the wife of a hard-working, respectable laborer, by whom she has three fine children. Grady is employed on the Nicholson pavement, and has to leave at an early hour in the morning, and returns late in the evening to his home on Grady's Hill, in South Memphis, a neighborhood inhabited by low whites and negroes. Some time since a negro hack driver named Jim Rucker, commenced visiting the house during Grady's absence. It was noticed by the neighbors that he was there very frequently and remained very long each time, and it was not long before it was generally suspected that an improper intimacy existed between him and Mrs. Grady. Time passed on, and the suspicion became a certainty, the guilty couple, indeed, taking no pains to conceal the infamous affair—a condition of things shocking even to the class of people that inhabited that quarter. It is not known whether Grady was apprised of the affair or not, but if he was he took no notice of it.

For some reason, the visits of the negro, Rucker, had become less frequent of late—in fact, ceasing altogether—and the woman was very much exercised thereat, trying in various ways to find out the reason of the termination of the intimacy. On Wednesday morning, it is said, she went to an old African who lives in the neighborhood, and who is looked upon and reverenced by the negroes as a Vandoo or Fetish, and consulted him. He told her that the negro girl, Isabella Walton, had conjured Rucker, and that the conjure was working too strong for him to break immediately; he, however, undertook the job, and went to work to collect the material for the hoodooing.

Meanwhile, while the Fetish was gathering his herbs and grigris, Mrs. Grady armed herself with a stout club, sought out the dark charmer, who had cast such potent spells around her dusky paramour, and finding her, proceeded to administer the condign immediately. A crowd collected, however, and compelled her to retreat; but she was not to be foiled of her vengeance thus, nor was she willing to await the slow action of the "charmer," apparently doubting his success, though he "should charm never so wisely." About seven o'clock in the evening, she armed herself with a small Smith & Wesson's cartridge pistol, and watching her chance, placed it close to the head of Isabella and fired. The wool flew, Isabella screamed and dropped. Mrs. Grady thinking her work done, also "dropped" her pistol and left for parts unknown; and though the most vigilant search had been made for her, up to six o'clock yesterday evening, she had not been found.

This is a queer story, but is vouched for as true in every particular by one of the officers who is working up the case.

YOUNG MEN'S SEYMOUR CLUB.—A special meeting of the Young Men's Independent Seymour Club will be held at eight o'clock this evening, at their headquarters, corner of Adams and Second streets. As the club is to join the Bluff City Club in a torchlight procession, and as the question of attending the grand barbecue at Wythe's station, on Saturday, is to be considered, it is hoped there will be a full attendance. By order of the President. C. H. DAVENPORT, Secretary.

UNION FEMALE COLLEGE.—At Oxford, Miss., there is established one of the oldest, if not the oldest, institution in the State devoted to the education and culture of all that is womanly in the gentler sex. This college stands, deservedly, high in the estimation of our people, as many of the wives and daughters of Memphis have been educated there. Rev. C. H. Bell, A. M., is President, and is widely known over this and adjoining States. Terms have been reduced, and such of our people as intend sending their daughters away to school, should read the inducements offered at Oxford.

THE FIFTH WARD COLORED DEMOCRATIC CLUB.—This club held its adjourned meeting at the Provine Block last night. After transacting considerable business, and adding several names to their list of members, they paraded the streets with transparencies and a band of music. At the APPEAL and Avalanche offices the procession halted and serenaded them. Calls were made for Gen'l. Pike and Col. Galloway, but neither of these gentlemen appeared.

THE DOCTORS DISAGREE.

The town, or a portion of it, was thrown into considerable excitement on Wednesday afternoon, by a card which appeared in the Evening Ledger, signed by Dr. Cittarotto, who denounced in no measured terms Dr. Freeman, a well-known and highly esteemed physician of the city. As was expected, the affair culminated yesterday in a caning, and almost a shooting scrape, which was thus detailed to us last night:

"During the evening, after the card appeared, Dr. Freeman and a friend called at Dr. Cittarotto's office to see him in regard to it. They failed in finding him that evening, but renewing their visits yesterday morning about midday, found him in his office. Dr. Freeman asked Dr. Cittarotto if he (Freeman) was the person referred to in his card. Cittarotto answered that he was, and with that Dr. Freeman 'lit into' him with a hickory stick. Cittarotto seized the stick and held it, and Freeman relinquished it, took another from his friend, and again struck him. Cittarotto then attempted to draw a pistol, and in doing so, the weapon exploded, wounding him through the fleshy portion of his thigh, and the ball lodging in the pocket-book of Dr. Freeman."

This, we believe, put an end to the scrimmage. Dr. Freeman and his friend went down to the First District and put up a forfeit for their appearance this morning.

We have given the story as told to us and forbear comments, as the affair will no doubt be thoroughly examined into this morning.

POLICE ITEMS.

—There were twelve arrests up to midnight in the first district, mostly trifling offenses.

—James Norris was fined $15 and costs, yesterday, by Squire Griffith, for wallopping a colored boy named Henry Farrel.

—Squire Walton has been engaged two whole days trying a woman named Annie Gallagher, on twenty-one warrants. Nineteen of the cases are State offenses—the other two are peace warrants. The case was pretty well commenced only, yesterday evening.

—Squire Griffith discharged Hannah Isley, a negro woman charged with receiving stolen goods.

—Mollie Williams stole a dress from Mrs. Dowdel. Squire Griffith sent her to jail in default of $50 bail to appear at the next term of the Circuit Court.

—Boston Sheffield, a darkey, broke into the house of Mrs. Leister, on the corner of Elliott and Vance streets, on Tuesday night, and stole a lot of clothing therefrom. Squire Griffith gave him a hearing yesterday, and sent him up in default of $2000 bonds to appear at the next term of the Criminal court.

—Herman Roamer, charged with cow-stealing, was yesterday discharged. As soon as he was set at liberty, Henry Rehkoff swore out a peace warrant against him and one Andy Powly. Squire Griffith bound them over to keep the peace in the sum of $500 each.

—There were $25 assessed in fines in the First district yesterday, and "nary red" collected.

—Sergeant Brown, of the First district, caught Frank Hogan, a negro burglar, who has long been "wanted" by the police for a job put up by him last spring. He was sent to jail to await action.

—Sallie Robinson, an infuriated negro wench, got on the rampage yesterday and stabbed another woman through the arm. She was arrested and lodged in the First district station.

—Bill Coe, a notorious negro cow-thief, was gobbled yesterday, and turned over to the tender mercies of the First district police.

LAGRANGE MASS MEETING, THURSDAY, 20th AUGUST.

LAGRANGE, TENN., August 11, 1868.

Editors Memphis Appeal:

I am instructed by the Seymour and Blair Club of this place to announce that the following named speakers have signified their willingness to attend and address the people at our grand Democratic barbecue and mass meeting, on Thursday the 20th instant: Hon. Landon C. Haynes, Judge T. W. Brown, Gen. N. B. Forrest, Capt. Van A. W. Anderson, Col. Orville Yerger, Col. A. S. Swingley, Col. M. C. Gallaway, of Memphis; Gen. John L. T. Sneed, of Somerville; Gen. W. S. Featherston, of Holly Springs; Hon. J. W. Leftwich, our candidate for Congress, and Col. W. W. Vaughn, our Elector, have not been directly heard from as yet, but I have no doubt will attend, as will also, in all probability, Col. W. H. Stephens, of Memphis, and Hon. Emerson Etheridge, of Dresden, besides several others of equal ability and distinction. Hon. Geo. H. Pendleton, of Cincinnati, Ohio, has not yet been heard from, but, it is believed, will be here, as it is understood he intends coming to West Tennessee soon, to fill a round of appointments in the South.

The public generally may depend upon it, we will have one of the largest mass meetings here that has ever been held in this part of the country.

All the Seymour and Blair clubs at Memphis, Somerville, Bolivar, Grand Junction, Saulsbury, Corinth, Iuka, Holly Springs, Brownsville, Covington, and elsewhere throughout North Mississippi and West Tennessee are specially invited to attend, and, if they so please, to come in an organized form and join in the procession, which will form at the headquarters of the Seymour and Blair Club of LaGrange, at half-past ten a.m., of the 20th.

Extra trains will be run each way on the Memphis and Charleston road on that day—one leaving Memphis at half-past six and one Corinth at seven in the morning, arriving here at ten and returning late in the evening of same day—all at half fare, and the tickets remaining good till next day for those who may wish to remain all night.

J. J. PULLIAM, President.
J. P. PRYOR, Rec'g Sec'y.

ADAH ISAACS MENKEN.—This woman, whose death in Paris, day before yesterday, was announced to us by telegraph, and whose fame has penetrated the four quarters of the globe, was a native of this city. Her maiden name was McCord, and years agone, she and her sister, now a Mrs. Hall, appeared in the ballet at the Varieties, then called Ash & Charles' Theater. Her brother, Johnny McCord, as he was familiarly called, also lived in Memphis, and followed the occupation of a job printer in the old Bulletin establishment. She was a most remarkable woman, and if her talents had been properly cultivated and her early training been such as it should have been, there is no telling what a mark she might have made upon the age. As it is, she is perhaps the most famous hetaerist that has lived since the time of Lais, whose fame called great men to visit her from all parts of the then known world, and whose marvelous beauty and wit turned the heads of the grave philosophers.

MEMPHIS AND LOUISVILLE RAILROAD. We would call the attention of travelers, and especially that of our merchants who are about to leave for the North, to the card of the above road in our issue of today. There has been and always will be much annoyance where city and railroad time conflict, and it is to remedy this evil that this Company have made the change in their advertisement, giving both railroad and city time.

THE COURTS.

CRIMINAL COURT—Wm. Hunter, Judge.—The proceedings in this Court on yesterday were as follows: In the case of the State vs. Patrick Dolan, charge of murder of Thomas Malone, the defendant was discharged from jail, the Grand Jury having failed to find a bill of indictment against him before adjournment.

No. 87. In the case of the State vs. Eli Guthrie et al., indictment for arson, a nol pros was entered as to Henry Wood and James Shafter.

No. 88. The State vs. Eli Guthrie et al., indictment for larceny, a nol pros was entered as to defendants, Henry Wood and James Shafter.

No. 90. The State vs. Eli Guthrie, Henry Wood, James Shafter, indictment for house-breaking, a nol pros was entered as to all the defendants.

The case of the State vs. Henry Fields, indictment for larceny, the jury returned a verdict of guilty, and fixed the period of imprisonment in the Penitentiary at three years.

In the case of the State vs. Samuel Martin, indictment for larceny, the jury returned a verdict of "not guilty."

To-day there will be a general jail delivery.

The petit jury was discharged until Monday morning next at 10 o'clock.

The habeas corpus case of the State vs. J. L. Covey and E. M. Morrison, called up for hearing last evening, on application for discharge on charge of larceny, was not disposed of on account of absent witnesses. The case was passed until this evening.

BANKRUPTCY COURT—T. J. Latham, Register.—Final discharges in bankruptcy have been granted to the following parties: H. Beatus, Lou Loubrie, Henry E. Wade, B. M. Patterson, John O. Graves.

The following petitions have been found incorrect in form by the Register: Benjamin Phelan, W. B. Richards & Co., C. P. Winkler, Joseph Wolff, B. F. White, James N. Chairs, M. L. Chambers, Abner D. Lewis.

Attorneys interested in the above petitions will please have them corrected without further delay.

A large number of final discharges remain in the hands of the Register ready for distribution to the parties entitled to the same. If the parties do not appear and procure their final discharge before Saturday next, they cannot be obtained before next October, as the Bankruptcy Court will stand adjourned on Saturday next to that time.

FIRE.—The alarm of fire at twenty minutes past one this morning was caused by the burning of an old frame building, corner of Auction and Main streets, occupied by McKinney & Bryson as a cabinet or carpenter's shop. We could not learn whether it was consumed or not.

GRAND MASS MEETING.—Of colored men at Poplar street Market Square, Saturday evening, 8 o'clock, August 15, 1868. At the last meeting of the Eighth Ward Democratic Club, a resolution was made and adopted that an invitation should be extended to the colored men of the ward, to hold a grand mass meeting, and organize an Eighth Ward Colored Democratic Club; also that the use of our hall adjoining Taylor & Co.'s drug store, be extended gratuitously for a weekly meeting. It is hoped that the colored men of our ward will all be in attendance, as there will be both white and colored Conservative speakers to address them. We desire that all colored men who can will be present, as the views of those who are fully acquainted with the political affairs of the country will be made known. Come one, come all, and promptly, at 8 p.m.

Secretary Eighth Ward Democratic Club.

FINANCIAL AND COMMERCIAL.

OFFICE OF THE DAILY APPEAL,
MEMPHIS, August 13, 1868.

The weather continues favorable for crops, but the first bale of cotton has not yet made its appearance, though at other points further south we learn of arrivals daily. We confidently expect our "first bale" before Monday next. In this connection, the Avalanche of yesterday proposes to send a copy of their weekly edition to the shipper of the first bale which comes to this market. This liberal proposition will cost our cotemporary $2. We propose to send a copy of our daily ($12) to the same party. Some further remarks in the commercial columns of our neighbor, regarding circulation, would seem to require comment at our hands, but as that question is already well understood, and the APPEAL is known to exceed in circulation that of any of its morning cotemporaries, we may be excused from making any further remarks upon this subject. It will, however, not be out of place to add that there is deposited in our business office the sum of $500 or more, which can be made to change proprietorships, if our neighbor feels at all inclined to test this question of circulation, and we will allow them to include their fifty cents campaign paper as part of that circulation.

There was some better demand to-day for exchange, and rates remain steady, as quoted yesterday, on all points.

We have some sales of city bonds to report, at prices ranging from 50@51½c; $20,000 and $12,600 paving bonds were taken, as an investment, at 50c, and $20,000 do at 51½c. A sale of $100,000 has also recently been effected in Baltimore at 52½c. All that are offered find ready sale at 50c, to brokers who have orders to fill. Memphis and Charleston stock is firm; 200 shares were offered yesterday at 53c, but 52½c was the best bid made, and we believe they were not sold. Other stocks and bonds are quiet but steady at former quotations.

Gold opened to-day in New York at 147¼c and closed at 147¾c. A lot of $6500 was put upon our market to-day, and 145½ offered, at which rate we presume it was sold.

The New York stock exchange quotations at noon to-day were as follows: Five-twenties, coupons of '81, 15½; do '62, 14½; do '64, 10½; do '65, 12½; do new issue, 9½; do '67, 9½; 10-40s, coupons, 9½. New Tennessee bonds, 64½.

City scrip is rather dull. Brokers do not seem disposed to buy even the small lots offered, as there is scarcely any demand from tax payers. We think that if our city authorities would enforce the payment of debts past due to the city, our local money would rapidly enhance in value. Some time ago there was an effort made to collect these debts, but they were mostly due from large property holders, who may have had some political or other influence to wield which it was politic not to endanger, but we trust the matter has not dropped. For the benefit of our readers and the public generally, we call upon our authorities for a list of the names of those who are behind in their accounts with the city, as well as the respective amounts they owe. It is due to tax payers—those who went forward and paid promptly—that they should know who it is that are exempt from bearing their share of the burden resting upon our people. Mr. McDavitt, who, while acting Mayor, was ever disposed to give all the information in his power to our citizens, will, we hope, take this matter in hand.

County warrants do not improve under the showing of the County Clerk, which it must be acknowledged is rather a favorable one so far as he is informed, but there is no way of ascertaining how many warrants have been issued in the time. Until there is some definite understanding upon this subject, warrant will remain dull. Brokers buy at 52@53c. Selling at 56@58c.

Police scrip is firm and in demand at 75@buying. Selling at 78@80c.

A car load of No. 1 wheat came in yesterday from Middle Tennessee for A. L. Harris & Co., of the City mills. It was purchased at $2. One hundred bushels from North Mississippi was taken by the same firm at $2.

Cotton was steady in Liverpool at the opening to-day—Uplands, 9⅝@10d; Orleans, 10⅛@10¼d—and closed firmer. Sales 10,000 bales—Uplands, 10d; Orleans, 10¼d.

In New York at the opening, the market was quiet but steady, and remained the same until the close—Uplands, 29½c; Orleans, 30½c; Good Middlings, 33c; sales 1500 bales.

A holder of five bales low cottons in this market, after making a tour about town with his samples without finding a buyer, returned to his office pretty well disgusted with matters generally, but with cotton especially—as you would be also, reader, were you take our tramp every day, looking for that which is not or will not be found for some weeks yet to come, a cotton market.

Pratt's Southern Made Cotton Gin

THIS GIN is regarded by planters who have used it, as the best for sample, picking the seed clean and light draught. Planters cultivating bottom lands are requested to examine the Eureka Gin at Farrington & Howell's, 260 Front street. It will pay for itself in ginning fifty bales. A. N. Gunnison, manufacturer of the Pratt Cotton Gin, believing that I am now a planter, gives the following certificate:

"MEMPHIS, TENN., January 31, 1868.

"I take pleasure in recommending to planters cultivating Cotton on bottom lands of the Mississippi, Arkansas, White and St. Francis rivers, the Eureka Gin, made by Daniel Pratt, of Alabama. This Gin separates the bolls, etc., from the Seed Cotton, makes a good sample, and is superior to any other Gin for bottom lands. I have used one myself on a farm in Washington county, Miss., and it operates well and gives entire satisfaction in every respect. A. N. GUNNISON."

Orders for Gins, from 40 to 80 Saws and Gum Belting, at Factory Prices, addressed to the care of FARRINGTON & HOWELL, 260 Front street, Memphis, promptly filled. Feeders and Gearing put up, and Gins repaired by a skillful Ginwright. G. W. TRUEHEART,

BUCKEYE SALVE
—FOR THE—
CURE OF EVERY FORM
—OF—
HEMORRHOIDS OR PILES

WHETHER OF LONG STANDING OR RECENT origin, internal or external, whether attended with Prolapsus, Hemorrhage or obstruction, and all by

External Application,

No internal adjuvants being required in any case, only to regulate the bowels, if constipated, or in Dia rhea and Dysentery.

THESE PILES, while actually the most prevalent in their various forms amongst all classes of both sexes, are, at the same time, the most distressing, frequently dangerous, and hitherto most difficult of cure.

Persons who suffer any length of time with the Piles generally try everything they can learn of purporting to cure the disease, and realize no permanent advantage therefrom. They have been told professionally, perhaps, there was "no permanent cure for Piles," and consequently have despaired of any future cessation from pain and suffering.

To all such a SPECIFIC is offered for their relief. The

BUCKEYE SALVE

Is a strictly scientific combination of well known remedial agents, and the proprietors have no hesitation in saying the BUCKEYE SALVE is the

ONLY INFALLIBLE SPECIFIC

Ever discovered for that disease, and which cures by outward application only, and that in the test of trial without a failure, to perform all the proprietors claim for it, if the directions are attended to.

A large number of gentlemen throughout the country of high character and influence have voluntarily attested to its efficacy in their own case, from hearsay, and whose certificates may be seen by reference to the publications.

The proprietors will forward to any address one box, prepaid, on receipt of the retail price, $1 00 per box.

A Liberal Discount to Druggists and Dealers in Medicine.

On the 10th Day of October Next,

Between the hours of 10 o'clock and 4, in front of the said Hotel, proceed to sell, to the highest bidder, on a credit of six and twelve months, all the Memphis Overton Hotel and the land on which the same stands, being the following lots, on the plan of the city of Memphis, to-wit: 127, 128, 129, 130, 131, 132, situate on the northwest corner of Main and Poplar streets in the city of Memphis, and embracing the block bounded by said Poplar and Main streets and Center alley, and an alley bounding said property on the north.

Redemption waived by the decree. The successful bidder will be required to execute notes for the purchase money with the most undoubted security before the sale is closed, and on failure, the sale will be continued, regarding on the last preceding bid.
